Capital Safety Releases First All-Encompassing DBI-SALA™ Brand Catalog

RED WING, Minn. — March 31, 2011 — Capital Safety, home of the DBI-SALA™ and PROTECTA® brands of fall protection equipment, today announces the release of a new DBI-SALA brand catalog highlighting the line's breadth and depth of premium fall protection solutions. DBI-SALA offers unmatched first-class comfort, safety and quality in fall protection equipment. The new catalog features more than one thousand items, twice the amount included in previous catalogs.

The full-line catalog is truly the first all-encompassing DBI-SALA brand catalog, with larger, higher-quality photographs and more than 150 pages showcasing harnesses, lanyards, self retracting lifelines, vertical and horizontal systems, anchorage connectors, netting and guardrail systems, confined space equipment, rescue systems and customizable fall protection solutions. The book is easy to navigate, with common product categories grouped together for fast selection. Helpful charts and matrixes clearly illustrate the features and benefits particular product sku's within a category offer. Further, many new products across all DBI-SALA categories will debut in the catalog.

"The new DBI-SALA catalog from Capital Safety displays an exciting suite of solutions which provide best-of-class features and benefits for those companies who want the "gold standard" in fall protection equipment," says Jeff Halbach, marketing communications manager for Capital Safety North America. "The bold design and
